

This proposal represents a step backwards for Amateur Radio, solves "problems" that aren't problems, and offers no needed restructuring. It should be denied.